General EXEMPTIONS FROM 1099-MISC REPORTING:

- Corporations continue to remain exempt from information reporting requirements (except if the payments were made to attorneys or health care providers)
- Payments for merchandise (goods and tangible property), telephone, storage, freight, and other similar items, are NOT required to be reported on a form 1099.
- Payments not made in the course of a trade or business (any personal services)

FORM 1099-K: “Payment settlement entities” (credit card companies, etc.) are now required to report credit card and third-party transaction payments on a form 1099-K. In other words, if you run a business that accepts credit cards, debit cards, or other third-party transaction payments, you should receive a form 1099-K for 2018 if you had A gross amount of total reportable payment transactions exceeding $20,000, and the total number of such transactions exceeds 200 The IRS began matching amounts reported on Form 1099-K for 2018 tax returns, so please include any 1099-K’s received when providing us your tax return information.

MISSING ID NUMBERS: If the payee fails to provide their taxpayer identification number to the payor or if the ID number is obviously incorrect, the payor must begin “back-up withholding” of federal income tax at a rate of 28% on all accounts paid to the payee and remit this amount to the IRS. If you are provided an incorrect ID number, the IRS will notify you of an invalid number and, unless the number is corrected, you will have to commence “back-up withholding”.

PENALTIES: Both the IRS and the State taxing agencies can disallow a business deduction for any amount that was not properly reported on an information return in addition to assessing penalties. There is also penalty for not supplying timely information statements to recipients.

ROBERT A. COWEN, CPA: We are not a corporation. If you paid us $600 or more in 2018 as a business expense, you will need to prepare and send us a form 1099-MISC.
