

Another year is almost past and a new year is upon us. This means that you must prepare for the year-end filing of payroll, income tax and other returns

Below is a schedule of some of the forms that you may be required to file:

Form		Filing Due Dates
1040/540 Individual		April 15
1040/540 Sole Proprietorship	Schedule C	April 15
1065/565 Partnership tax returns		April 15
1120(s)/100(s) Corporate taxpayers	December 31 st year-end	March 15
	Non-December 31 st year-end	2 1/2 months after year-end

Please call our office to discuss any tax planning strategies that might benefit you prior to your year-end.

		Vendor/ Employee	Government
W-2	Employee's report of annual wages and taxes withheld	Feb. 1	Mar. 1
940	Federal unemployment payroll tax return		Feb. 1
DE-7	State of California annual reconciliation return		Feb. 1

If you are using an outside payroll service, your service should be responsible for preparing these returns for you. Do not forget to review all of your employee's addresses and update all of your employee's W-4's for 2010.

- 1099 As you are aware, the IRS and EDD are stepping up their audits for 1099's and have instituted penalties for non-compliance. You must file 1099's for the following entities including but not limited to:
